Teacher's notes and answer key

Viracocha – the God Who Created the World Twice

Subjects: English · History · Geography | recommended from age 11 (A2/B1) | Video: 8:09 min

Answers B

1. He shaped giants from raw stone on the shore of Lake Titicaca; they were to worship him, bring offerings and live by his laws.

2. The giants grew proud, forgot his laws, stopped making offerings and fought each other.

3. Rain fell without end and Lake Titicaca overflowed; almost all the giants were swept away, some turned to stone.

4. They were smaller, humbler and mortal; made of clay and stone, each group with its own language, clothes and customs.

5. Why neighbouring peoples speak different languages and have different customs: each came out of the earth at its own place of origin (pacarina).

Answer C

Correct numbers from top to bottom: 4 – 7 – 1 – 6 – 2 – 8 – 3 – 5

Notes on D and E

E: First – stone / huge, strong, later proud / the flood, some turned to stone / stone figures on mountainsides. Second – clay and stone / smaller, humbler, different languages / came out of the earth, learned farming / the peoples of the Andes.

Extra: the Gate of the Sun at Tiwanaku; the Inca ruler Wiraqocha Inka took his name.

Content note and age

Recommended from age 11. A flood destroys a whole humanity; no graphic images.

Sources of the retelling: 16th-century Spanish colonial chronicles based on older Inca tradition.
